Breeding

Sandro Hit is by the outstanding jumping stallion Sandro Song, who is by the well-known top sire of showjumping stallions and founder of his own successful sire line, Sandro. This stallion, which has over 44 graded sons, is also a source of world-class dressage horses. Loretta, dam of Sandro Hit, is also the dam of the super young graded stallion Diamond Hit and of a full sister to Sandro Hit that was first a champion foal in 1997 and then champion State Premium mare at Vechta in 1999. She herself is closely related on both sides of her pedigree to the international showjumper Spillers Rainy Day and her sire Ramino is by the outstanding sire Ramiro, ranked 2nd in the WBFSH list of showjumping sires in the period 1991/2000 and 10th in the period 1999/2000. Ramiro is the sire of over a 100 graded sons as well as many top graded daughters in several countries, including Belgium, Germany and The Netherlands. He is also the sire of over five dressage horses that competed at international level. His offspring feature such well known names as Ratina Z, winner of team gold and individual silver at the Barcelona Olympics and team gold at the Atlanta Olympics. He had an incredible breeding index of 160 and 1st in the WBFSH rankings in the period 1990/1999. Sandro Hit's maternal great grandsire is the outstanding sire of dressage horses, Welt As, 2nd in the WBFSH dressage rankings for both 1999/2000. He is the sire of the mighty Gestion Bonfire, individual gold medal winner at the Sydney Olympics 2000, and 1st in the individual rankings for dressage 1999/2000. As a result Welt As' progeny winnings to date total almost £400,000 and his 14 graded sons includes such top performers as the international dressage stallion Diamond VII.

Performance

Sandro Hit has himself competed successfully in M level dressage and won both of the M level dressage class at Zwolle Stallion Show in 2000. In 1999 he won the World Championship for 6 year old dressage horses and was best young stallion of 2000 at the German Championships

Progeny is daughter Starlett, out of the full sister from Don Schufro, became the most expensive mare in the German auction in Vechta. Another daughter Poetin, became 3 year old riding horse champion at Warendorf with a final score of 9.5 before coming 5th at the World Championships for Young Horses as a five year old, and winning the 6 year old class at the bundeschampionships in 2003 for dressage horses. In 2002 Scaramouche sired by Sandro Hit won the Elite Foal Auction held at Addington. From the 2006 Oldenburger premium lot alone, Sandro Hit was completely dominant with four direct sons reaching top prices of € 450.000 and two further nephews, one of them the champion stallion. His unique performance as a producer is demonstrated once again with two highly scored national champions, putting the number of championship title-holders which he has produced up to seven. Silberaster was also distinguished as Oldenburger champion mare, Sir Donnerhall was reserve champion. The Sandro Hit son Salieri has been triumphant at World Cup level with Victoria Max-Theurer. Besides that he has produced an armada of highly successful up and coming successful young horses.
